(Associated Press)
ATLANTA, June 20—Asa G. Candler, Sr., Atlanta capitalist, has brought suit for a divorce from his wife, Mrs.
May Little Candler. The papers allege cruel treatment.

The divorce petition was filed in the Fulton county superior court late yesterday and became public today.

Mr. Candler, the millionaire founder of Coca Cola, was married to Mrs.
May Little Ragin, a public stenographer in the Candler building, one year ago.

After a honeymoon trip to northern cities, the capitalist installed his bride in the palatial Caville home in the exclusive Druid Hills residential section of Atlanta.

Before his second marriage, Mr.
Candler was sued for $500,000 for breach of promise by Mrs. Onezima de Bouchel, New Orleans beauty and society leader. This case resulted in a verdict for Mr. Candler, the trial taking place after his marriage to Mrs.
Ragin.

Some months ago Atlanta's social and business circles were startled by the announcement of Chief of Police J. L.
Beavers that Mrs. Candler and two Atlanta business men, W. J. Stoddard and G. W. Keeling, had been arrested in a raid on a fashionable apartment house in the northside residential section, while they were sitting around a table with a bottle partly filled with liquor.

They were released on bond and when the cases were tried before the recorder, the charges against them were dismissed, a charge of violating the prohibition law being placed against Stoddard.

About this time, Mrs. Candler, according to accepted reports, removed from the palatial residence in the Druid Hills sections, to the home of her mother. Mr. Candler resides in De-Kalb county, but the suit was filed in Fulton county, in which his wife lived prior to their marriage.

The city of Atlanta lies in the parts of both Fulton and DeKalb counties and is the county seat of the former.

The plaintiff in the divorce action is one of the best known men in the South. He is about 72 years old and built the Candler fortune from Coca Cola. He has five children by a former marriage and to each of them, some years ago, he gave about $5,000,000. It was brought out during the De Bouchel suit that Mr. Candler's present fortune runs into the millions. He has taken a leading part in the upbuilding of Atlanta. He has given generously to the cause of education, giving over $1,000,000 to Emory university of this city.

WOMAN SUES THREE OTHERS FOR BEATING

(Associated Press)
ALEXANDRIA, La., June 20—Charging that she was taken from her home by three women and horsewhipped Mrs. Lillian Bonnette has filed suit for $75,000 in district court against Mrs. Gertrude Ball, Mrs. Amelia Jordan, Mrs. Lessie Hatchett, whom she named as assailants.

The woman declared in her petition that on the night of April 25 she was in her home, clothed in a kimono and bedroom slippers, recovering from an operation, when the three women entered her house, beat her and pulled her hair, hog-tied her, searched her house, taking a revolver, necklace and fur. They then put her in an automobile and took her into the woods, where she was beaten and tortured like a dog.

Mrs. Bonnette is the mother of a boy of seven and a girl nine years old and lives with her husband on military road, four miles from here.

Officials have not announced the reason for the assault.

Mrs. Bonnette is an unusually attractive woman.

KIWANIS CLUB WILL ENJOY PICNIC NEXT WEEK, GAME IS SET

Challenge Of Athens
Club For Contest
Is Accepted

ADDRESS MADE BY DR. STEEL

Stresses The Value Of Civic Organizations
In Cooperation

The Morgan Kiwanis club will hold its next week's meeting at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Railroad Y.
M. C. A. and from the Association building the club members and their families will go to one of the nearby resorts for a several hours outing with the evening meal served picnic fashion.

All Kiwanians are requested to take notice of the change of time for the next meeting, and of the plans for the family picnic.

The chief feature of the program at this week's meeting of the club held at the Y. M. C. A. was a half hour address by Dr. Samuel A. Steel, pastor of the First Methodist church of Decatour. Dr. Steel commended the spirit of brotherhood as promoted by such organizations as the Kiwanis club.

The speaker also stated that civic clubs tended to promote co-operation among all the people in matters effecting the public good.

Dr. Steel made reference to the base ball game to be played July 4, between the Kiwanians and the members of the Y. M. C. A. Bible class, and commended the enterprise in the heartiest manner.

At the business session of the club a communication from the Athens Kiwanis club directed to the Morgan Kiwanis club was read which contained a challenge to the local Kiwanians to try conclusions with the Athenians in a baseball game.

The challenge was promptly accepted, with agreement that two games be played to start with, one of which contests is to be in the Twin Cities and the other in Athens. It was stated that sometime after the July 4 match with the Association Bible class the proposed games with Athens will be arranged for.

A resolution was passed calling on the Kiwanians to sell their full quota of the 3,000 tickets for the July 4 ball game. It was announced that all the gate receipts from that game shall go to the charity funds of the two organizations.

With much regret the resignation of Dave Perkins, as one of the directors of the club was received, Mr. Perkins having been transferred by his company to Montgomery.

C. of C. To Help In Weevil Control

The Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce, in conjunction with the National Boll Weevil Control Association is exerting its efforts to carry out the plans for putting into general practice the control methods approved by the United States Department of agriculture and the state agricultural college.

County Agent J. C. Ford, of Hartselle, and W. J. Meininger, secretary-manager of the local chamber of commerce, both members of the county committee, are earnestly cooperating in the matter of distributing the "Boll Weevil Leaflets" recently issued by the association.

A supply of these leaflets are in the hands of the representatives and it is the request that all interested in the problems will aid in the distribution.

MRS. EDMUNDSON IS SECRETARY OF FARMERS' GROUP

Organizations Seeking Platform Planks
From Democrats

NEW YORK WORLD HAS INTERVIEW

Hopes Easterners Will Realize They Have An Interest In The South

Mrs. W. B. Edmundson, well known local woman, and the witness in the Shoals hearings who irked Senator Norris with reference to a bargain he was said to support Ford's offer, and who now is in New York to attend the democratic convention in the interest of farm planks in the platform, has been made secretary of the organization of farm representatives now in New York.

It is understood the representatives there will seek to have the democratic party incorporate several proposals, looking for relief of farmers of the nation.

Copies have been received here also of an interview with Mrs. Edmundson in The New York World, in which Mrs. Edmundson is quoted in advocacy of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals and farmer relief platform planks.

The World story follows:

By Mabel Abbott
Mrs. Wallace Berry Edmundson of Decatur Alabama, the woman who scared Senator George W. Norris almost to death two or three weeks ago by reminding him at a hearing before his committee that he had been given a kiss by a pretty girl at a barbecue at Muscle Shoals to induce him to favor the Ford offer, is in New York to help prepare a plank to be presented to the Democratic Platform Committee by agricultural interests.

Mrs. Edmundson has been prominent in Alabama politics, was defeated for congress last year, and is a member of Senator Underwood's Campaign committee. She is not a delegate to the democratic convention, but is attending as a representative of the Farm Union of Alabama in the interest of the proposed agricultural plank.

"I am hoping," she said yesterday,

"that Eastern capitalists may realize that their interests are bound up with those of the Southern farmer as never before. The Eastern mills need cheaper raw material and they cannot get it unless we can raise cotton, and we cannot do that unless we get cheap fertilizer. Cheap fertilizer is indispensable to push the cotton crop up early so the bolls may harden before the boll weevil arrives in force."

"I don't think people realize that we are about to lose the cotton surpremacie of the world unless we can raise enough to supply it at a reasonable price. Wouldn't it pay this industry here, even if it did mean giving Henry Ford a good thing?"

Mrs. Edmundson said she did not think the proposed plank would contain any reference to the Ford offer, but that it would be along the lines of general help to agriculture.

HEALTH UNIT SOUGHT

Lawrence and Cullman county people are becoming aroused over their need of health units, stated Dr. W.
K. Sharp, of Florence who is the Tennessee Valley Sanitary Inspector for the state board of health. At Moulton Dr. Sharp recently talked with members of a civic organization who stated that Lawrence County people are making an effort to provide the $5,000 necessary to insure the opening of a county health unit.

Officials of Cullman County are also moving for a health unit for their county, stated Dr. Sharp.

After four years' service, Miss Glee Hastings, of Spencer, Iowa, has returned to New York, wearing rector for the Near East Relief in

POISONED DUST PUT ON LOCAL STREAMS

Finely screened street dust, mixed with Paris Green, 100 parts of the dust to one part of the poison, is now being used by Morgan County health authorities in their fight against malaria mosquitoes.

The "wiggie-tails" which, when they are old enough become malaria mosquitoes are said to eat of the Paris Green as mixed with dust freely, when the poison is near them.

The poison-dust is now being placed along the edges of sluggish streams such as Dry Creek, and along the edges of ponds and pools.

The poison is used especially where much vegetation skirt sheets of water.

This method of poisoning, is not used to take the place of oiling, but is used in connection with oiling against malaria mosquitoes.

Morgan Road Unit Will Meet Soon

It is expected that the Morgan County unit of the Tennessee Valley Road Improvement Association will hold a meeting soon to map out a program of activities, similar to the Madison county meeting of the Association held at Huntsville recently.

President J. W. Clopton, of the association, stated that the next general meeting of the organization was due to be held in Huntsville.

Mr. Clopton stated the members of the Madison county unit of the association were: T. W. Pratt, C. H. Pulley, W. H. Bickley, E. T. Terry, Robert Murphree, W. H. Bickley, T. N.
McAllister and S. W. Flemming, chairman.

LEAGUE MEETS

The Y. M. C. A. Industrial Baseball League will hold another meeting tonight at the Y. M. C. A. building. A number of the Twin City prominent business men will meet with the organizers of the League and a permanent organization will supercede the temporary organization that was set up at the meeting held last week. The hour for the meeting is 7:30 o'clock.
R. D. Edwards, Physical director at the Y. M. C. A. urges all the representatives to be present. The League will open its season on Saturday, June 28, at Malone Park with a double header.
The L. and N. shopmen will cross bats with the Decatur Cornice and Roofing company while the Albany-Decatur Daily will meet the Alabama Power company nine.

TENTATIVE PLANKS DRAWN BY LEADERS OF PARTY IN PARLEY

Foreign Relations Also
To Have Prominent Place In Draft

DAVIS IS BACKED AS COMPROMISE

He Admits That He Is In Receptive Mood
For Nomination

(Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 20—Scandal in the administration of government affairs, as disclosed by Senate investigation, occupies the dominant place in a tentative democratic platform, in process of drafting by a group of party leaders for submission to the platform committee.

Foreign relations, with particular reference to the world court, agriculture aid and economy in government expenditures, coupled with tax reductions are subject to be dealt with in other principle planks.

Prohibition, the Ku Klux Klan issue and foreign affairs probably will form the main fighting points before the resolutions committee.

The present tentative draft of the platform omits specific mention of platform omits specific mention of a strong declaration for law enforcement. There is no mention of the Ku Klux Klan.

Among those engaged in the work of preparing the tentative draft are Senator Glass, Chairman Hull and Walter Moore, of Alabama.

NEW YORK, June 20—With the increasing influx of delegates to the national democratic convention, the political mathematicians are busily engaged in figuring the actual and potential strength of the leading candidates, complicated as their task is by the arrival of favorite sons and dark horses in candidate's row.

Two separate movements to groom John W. Davis, of West Virginia former ambassador to Great Britain, for the nomination, developed in Washington and Chicago and were growing stronger every minute when it arrived here after Davis let it be known that he was in a receptive mood.

Party chieftains admittedly against McAdoo and neutral regarding Smith immediately began sounding out state leaders on Davis as a possible compromise candidate in the event that the Smith-McAdoo contest developed a deadlock.

Managers for George S. Silzer, governor of New Jersey, Carter Glass, of Virginia, Oscar Underwood of Alabama and James M. Cox, of Ohio, have opened headquarters.

Work already has been started by Homer S. Cummings, of Conn., on the party platform.

It is generally conceded that the main test of the strength between the McAdoo and Smith forces will be on the question of the Ku Klux Klan, league of nations and prohibition.

George E. Brennan, Illinois leader, and keen as a Smith supporter, has been bitter in his attitude against the hooded organization, and insists that the democratic platform must definitely denounce the Klan.

Managers of the McAdoo campaign have reiterated the stand taken by their candidate in his southern speeches on Americanism and religious tolerance.

To Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada, has been designated the duty of framing the fundamental planks in the platform.

Senator Pittman, who conferred on the tentative draft of a platform with

Was skeptical of Kellogg's Bran until it gave him back his health Naturally Mr. Carter—whose letter follows—was skeptical. He had tried practically everything for the relief of constipation. All had failed. But Kellogg's Bran brought him permanent relief, just as it has done for thousands of others. Read his letter:

Gentlemen:
I am 45 years old, and have been for years a great sufferer from constipation. I had to resign a clerical position because of rushes of blood to my head, some of which caused me to fall to the ground. I took an outdoor laboring job and tried for the first time, skeptically I admit, your Krumbled Bran. The result has been wonderful. I began to be normal after I had been on the Bran about three days. No more chasms, no more Old Dr. Se-and-Son's Pills, Epsom salts by the ton, etc., ad infinitum! You have the most wonderful product for constipation I have ever seen or tried. Yours very gratefully, L. T. Carter, 294 Nineteenth St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, does not irritate the intestines like drugs and pills. It acts exactly as nature acts. Eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the exclusive, nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream and in the recipes on every package. Sold by all grocers. Made in Battle Creek.

GIRLS' TEAM BEATS LOCAL AGGREGATION

The American Athletic Girls heralded as a baseball team of girls but whose lineup here Thursday revealed five girls and four men, defeated a picked team of locals 3 to 2 in a fast game at Malone park. Watson, a local city leaguer, loaned to the visitors for the day, provided the hitting sensation of the game, poling out four safeties in the same number of tries.

The visitors used a male battery, the catcher being none other than Shepard, who performed at first base for the Columbia Mules in the Alabama-Tennessee league. Another male played a cracking good game at short for the girls, while Watson held down third. Members of the feminine gender played first, second and the outfield for the visitors.

The game was a scoreless deadlock until late in the game, when the girls counted first, getting a lead they never lost.

Fans were so pleased at the diamond exhibition that arrangements were made for a second game Friday, that day having been an off-day in the visitors' schedule.

Congressmen in Washington, conferred with Mr. Cummings.

The women blossomed forth today and became active in both the Smith and McAdoo camps, while pamphlets setting forth the strength of the candidates, began to appear in hotel lobbies and on the streets.

Mrs. Annette Funak, an alternate from the District of Columbia, was extolling the McAdoo virtues at his headquarters. With her were Mrs. Leroy Springs, national committee woman from South Carolina and Mrs. Lou Huskey, alternate from Tennessee.

Smith women headquarters also was opened today in the Waldorf-Astoria and an active campaign started to reach the feminine delegates. Miss Harriette May Mills, a member of the New York state hospital commission is reported to be slated as a seconder of Smith's nomination.

Among the latest arrivals are Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, whose support is pledged to Senator Ralston.

William Jennings Bryan, who has promised to do plenty of talking, to the party leaders, once he gets into form, as due today.

PASTORS PICNIC

Members of the Morgan County pastors union and their families are having a basket picnic at Seneca Springs, Trinity Mountain, this afternoon.

The happy party met at the Decatur Baptist church and went in a body.

A Word to The Wise

"In March I was called to the bedside of my sister in Brewton, Alabama. She was given up to die and was almost dead. Talked in a whisper. Doctors said nothing but an operation would save her and she was too weak for that. Her color was yellow as a pumpkin and she was filled with gas. That day I heard of May's Wonderful Remedy and went and got a bottle for her. In three weeks she was able to be about and walked a mile to church. I am praising your medicine to everyone." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. By druggists everywhere. Advt.

Health is Wealth

Health is one of the greatest things your family can possess. It brings happiness and success. But health must be safe-guarded by good wholesome foods that are prepared from the purest ingredients. This is especially true of bakings. If they are not properly raised, we all know that they are not easily digested. Many times when self-rising flour is used in place of good plain flour and dependable baking powder—the results are flat, soggy and heavy foods.

Don't take chances! Use a reliable brand of baking powder and plain flour. Then you will be sure of healthful bakings that are easily digested.

Remember, science has never found anything to take the place of the tried and tested method of using plain flour and good baking powder in preparing bakings. Millions of housewives now know by actual experience that many preparations that are claimed to take their place are worthless and dangerous to health because they fail to leaven. There is no comparison.

Calumet, the Economy Baking Powder, is known to be one sure and positive aid to successful bakings that are always pure, sweet and wholesome.

That's the reason its sales are 2½ times as much as any other brand.

A DAILY PRAYER—Lest we lose patience with ourselves, give us we pray Thee, a measure of Thy endless patience and long-suffering.

The biggest loss people or communities can sustain is the loss of enthusiasm.

One right every American has, if he wants it, is to vote his sentiments without explanations.

The recent disavowals of some Democratic candidates for the nomination for the Presidency of any intention or desire to change the "two-thirds" rule in choosing national party standard bearers, indicates that it is generally felt that to substitute majority rule at this time would be unpopular and unwise. Should the rule be changed, whoever was nominated for President by a bare majority, if he had any enemies, they would be inclined to say he got the party endorsement by chicanery.

The two-thirds rule may not be a wise one on general principles. It does away in part with a theory or doctrine dear to Americans, namely majority rule. But if a candidate does get a two-thirds majority, he is that much stronger with the party. Few would care to go against the will of seventy-five out of every hundred people in the party.

In a convention, however, the two-thirds rule is said often to encourage minorities to contend and hold out longer than is best, knowing how hard it would be for their opponents to get a two-thirds majority.

The rule tends to cause delegates to abandon their first choice candidates and to take men they really do not want in an effort to end dead-locks. If it is felt that a two-thirds majority does away with the rule of the majority, then the rule should be brought about by some kind of a referendum vote of the members of the party after the national meet in New York next week is over with.

It is hardly probable there will be any change at any time in the present "two-thirds" rule of the Democratic party, mainly because of the belief that minorities should be protected in their rights, and that where 49 per cent of the people want a thing, they should not be ignored by the other 51 per cent.

Because a principle cannot be debated where personalities are involved, it would do little good to discuss the question of retaining or doing away with the "two-thirds" rule during the sessions of the national convention to open Tuesday.

Those who are great admirers of Woodrow Wilson, because the two-thirds rule made his nomination possible at Baltimore, will be slow to abandon it on the score "of the good it has done."

Tennessee Valley towns have not abandoned their efforts in behalf of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals. Postponing of action on disposal of Muscle Shoals until the winter session of congress has not caused advocates of the Ford offer to lose hope and in the towns of North Alabama the sentiment for not only keeping up the fight, but for making it more emphatic than ever, is very strong.

The Florence Chamber of Commerce, whose members consider the lease of Muscle Shoals to Ford of vital importance, has decided to appropriate $5,500 for the purpose of further financing the Tennessee River Improvement Association in its campaign in behalf of the development of Muscle Shoals. The Sheffield Chamber of Commerce has added another $2,000 to its contribution for the Improvement Association, and other towns in the Valley that will directly benefit from development of the big project are also doing "their bit" and all are apparently determined that no lack of effort on their part will be permitted to reduce the chances of the Ford offer when it comes up in congress in December.

Nor are the Tennessee Valley folks the only ones who are determined that the fight shall not be abandoned. Indications now are that when congress does take up the Muscle Shoals question for final disposition, the fight for the Ford bid will be stronger and made more determinedly than it ever has been. But this does not mean that friends of the Ford offer will be crushed if Ford does not get the Shoals. Deep seated desire for a settlement of the question, irrespective of the Ford bid, or any other bid, is growing. What most is wished by the public generally is that the Muscle Shoals project will be developed and its great power utilized for the benefit of industry, agriculture and commerce. This is the really vital thing.—Aniston Star.

There are those who believe, and sincerely, that the treatment the rank and file of American newspapers have given the ghastly murder case at Chicago, during the past three weeks, is "exploiting crime" and "trading on the morbidity of the general public."

A few newspapers lend color to this charge by making a practice of stringing out such a story, repeating and featuring its sensational phases as long as the subject will bear it, and often more, and surrounding it with a glamor of pasty romance and insufferable sobbing. When the legitimate supply fails, these newspapers fake to drag out the interest and hold circulation gains.

But the average newspaper, we observe, has unfolded the facts from Chicago, without fear or favor, that the people who read may know. And the people have a right to know what is happening in their world, whether it be ugly or fair. Newspapers are vital when they deal with the realities of life.

Press critics sometimes strike at the messenger, rather than the source of evil tidings. The degenerate Chicago murder which has horrified the reading public is an indictment of the social order in what is very properly described as the "jazz age."

Would the critics of the press prefer, in the name of decent living, that such rank growths as Leopold and Loeb should be glossed over, minimized, suppressed? Would they avenge the newspapers enter into a conspiracy of silence and permit such evil conditions to grow sorrows beneath the surface? In such circumstances the public would rightfully draw an indictment against journalism. When evil conditions persist in the face of exposure, the indictment rightfully rests against the social system.—Editor and Publisher.

In his address to the graduating class at the Normal auditorium Tuesday night, Dr. Spright Dowell said that the "good old days" are of the future and not of the past.

Dr. Dowell is right about the matter—there never was such a thing as the "good old days" compared with the present days and those that are to come, the days that have passed were pretty poor affairs. In fact, the further away from the so-called "good old days" we get, the worse they become. Bad as are the present days, they are by far better than those that have gone before.

The "good old days," as generally understood, mean the "old oaken bucket that hung in the well, with its attendant typhoid fever and other diseases that are the result of contaminated water. The present day chlorinated water drawn from a tap makes the germ-laden water of the "good old days" appear like a death-dealing concoction of the devil. There may be those who prefer the candle and coal oil lamp of former days, but people in their right minds will cry aloud for the electric light. The ancient farmer cut his grain with a sickle and threshed it with a flail. Would the farmer of today with his harvester and power separator care to go back to the "good old days?" Not much he wouldn't.

The radio, the airplane, the transplanting of glands, the X-ray are of today, not yesterday. They add to the joy of living a richness undreamed of a few years ago. So it is wherever we may look—inventions, improvements and higher knowledge, for all of which we should get down on our narrow and give thanks that we did not live in the "good old days," which never existed.—Jacksonville (Ala.) Argus.

An enthusiastic mass meeting of baseball fans took place last Wednesday evening following the second game with Athens, and a permanent organization was perfected, with Dr. W. M. Booth as president, F. E. Burleson, player manager, and Wray Barclift, assistant cashier of the Farmers and Merchants bank secretary-treasurer.

The meeting was pursuant to a call from the manager, F. E. Burleson, for the purpose of putting the team on a financial foundation. Everything was harmonious, and it is the plan of the association to have winning ball for the next two months. Donations were freely subscribed and the team was given a big boost. The plans call for a $1,200 per month as a maximum to meet the needs of the team.

Hartselle has only played two official games the present season, both of them here. On Tuesday they met Athens in a twelve inning contest, 4-3 in favor of Athens. Wednesday the game was interfered with on account of rain, a seven inning contest resulted in a victory for the locals 5-1. Thursday the team goes to Athens for the final game of the series. Other games have been arranged for, and from now until the close of the season the team will be busy.

At a meeting of the city board of education held last Wednesday night, the following teachers were selected for the city school at the term beginning next September.

The principal, Professor G. G. Glover is expected to preside over this school, as he is considered a fixture in the school life of the town.

COUNCIL TO MEET

There will be a regular meeting of the Albany city council this evening at the city hall.

MARVIN RIVERS HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Marvin Rivers, said to be a resident of Trinity, was given medical attention at the home of C. E. Malone, corner of Jackson Street and Fourth avenue, Albany this morning following a head-on collision of two automobiles the one was driven by Mr. Rivers and the other by T. O. Lee, the last named being on his way south to his work at the Louisville and Nashville shops. Lee was unhurt.

Rivers is said to have been in a small one seated Ford, and Lee in a Chevrolet car when the accident occurred.

The car of Rivers is said to have turned turtle more than once when it struck the larger car.

The top of Rivers' head (right side) was badly bruised, it having struck the hard pavement when he was thrown from his car. It is feared by physicians the skull was fractured. Mr. Rivers is conscious but badly hurt. He remains at the home of Mr. Malone for further treatment. Both cars were badly damaged.

Sister Of Pastor Dies In Nashville

Dr. S. D. Monroe, pastor of the First Baptist church of Albany, has received word of the death, in Nashville, Tenn., of his sister, Mrs. Charles Drago, from whose bedside he had returned home only a few days ago. The body was taken to Carmargo, Ill. for interment. The deceased had been ill about three weeks. Her husband, who was injured in an automobile accident some weeks ago, is at the point of death also.

The many friends here of Dr. Monroe sympathize deeply with him in his bereavement. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Asger who lectured here recently.

What the Press Agents Say

A list of qualifications which would stagger an old forty-niner confronted Ernest Torrence when cast in Zane Grey's "The Heritage of the Desert." Here are the things which he is called upon to do: ride horseback, drive six horses, shoot accurately with a revolver and rifle, shoe horses, preach, plough and act as veterinary to birds and domestic animals.

Having lived on the plains, Mr. Torrence was able to do the things required without further instruction. "The Heritage of the Desert" is the story of a fight for water rights waged between honest pioneers and desert gunmen more than 40 years ago. It was produced by Irvin Willat and comes to the Princess theater today. Others featured in the picture besides Ernest Torrence are: Bebe Daniels, Noah Beery and Lloyd Hughes.

Virginia Lady Says That Many of Her Long-Suffered Ills Have Fled Since She Took Cardui.

Bristol, Va.—"I can sleep good at night now, something I have never done before in my life," says Mrs. Deala Hawks, of 712 Prospect St., this city, "and it is due to Cardui."

"I was always nervous and tossed when I should have been asleep, but since I took Cardui it has strengthened me, and my general health is so improved that many of the ills from which I have suffered for years have fled."

"I used to go to bed tired and, when I would get up in the morning, I was still tired. Now I feel like doing a day's work in my garden or in the house, and I owe all this good health to Cardui, for I had suffered for years until I took it."

"I had had female trouble for years and once, for six months, I was flat on my back. I am glad to recommend to other women a medicine which has helped me."

If you are nervous and run-down in health, suffering as Mrs. Hawks describes above, it is probable that Cardui will greatly help you. Try it

Russian Caviar Again

Russian caviar is again to grace America's board, for a revival of the manufacture and export of this delicacy, which during the war and Russian revolution suffered practically complete collapse, is to be undertaken. French agreements with the soviet government enable that country to prepare caviar on the Volga and to export the product.

Trapped in the Alps

An eagle measuring nearly eleven feet from wing tip to wing tip was caught alive at Meolans in the Alps. A few days before its capture the bird was seen to swoop down on a goat and kill and eat it. A trap was set and baited with a goat's carcass, and when the eagle returned he was captured.

Counting by Tens

Our system of counting by tens started ages ago when men counted on their fingers. Because they had ten fingers, a numbering on their hands made a unit of counting, and that was the beginning of the decimal system. A count on their fingers and toes resulted in twenty and thus the checking off of things by scores began.

DEPUTY SHERIFF GIVES FACTS TO THE PUBLIC

Fred Kleinschmidt says Tanlac Corrected Troubles In Two Weeks' Time.

"I regard Tanlac as an unusual tonic and can honestly say it met every need in my case," is the matter of fact statement of Fred Kleinschmidt, widely known deputy sheriff.

"Indigestion and nervousness had troubled me for years. As a result my body weakened and my energy about all left me. Frequently my sleep was restless and unsound and I felt tired out much of the time."

"After two weeks' use of Tanlac my stomach was in condition to where I could eat ravenously of everything and not feel a titch of indigestion. In three weeks' time Tanlac had me in tip-top shape in every way. It toned up my whole system, brought back my strength and energy, and left me feeling years younger."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Are You Playing Square With Your Furniture Dealer?

There are few business enterprises which are attended with such unusually attractive credit facilities as is the retail furniture business. Furniture dealers of Albany and Decatur are willing to trust you, to give you the full benefit of long time credit, but they have bills which they must meet promptly, and when you miss the payment to your furniture dealer that you had said you would make, you are causing an unfair burden to be assumed by the dealer.

He had made you a fair price, when you bought. He has figured your payments as a part of his fixed income. The financial side of his business is based entirely on the payments you and other customers have promised to make. If, for any reason, you reach the point where it is impossible to make your promised payment, isn't it fair to your dealer that you talk the matter over with him.

EDWARD O'NEAL IS
TWIN CITY VISITOR

Edward A. O'Neal, president of the Alabama Farm Bureau, was here several hours today en route to his home in Florence from Chicago, where he attended a week's meetings of the directors of the farm bureau of the United States. Mr. O'Neal being a member of that body.

He stated that the farmers remained 100 per cent strong for the Ford bid for Muscle Shoals.

He declared, "If the farmers get their program put into force and the Ford bid is an important part of it, the representatives from the South and the West must cooperate with each other in the senate."

Mr. O'Neal said he did not care to discuss political issues at this time. He said he was busy every day assisting in the work of increasing the membership of the farm bureau, and in promoting cooperation marketing.

Mr. O'Neal was in conference here with Clyde Hendrix a member of the executive committee of the cotton association of Alabama.

FOOD GAVE HER
HOURS OF AGONY

Mrs. Leda Yeager, of Reading, Pa., Tells How She Freed Herself From Distress

Mrs. Leda Yeager

"For two years I had indigestion so bad that no matter what I ate I was in agony for hours," says Mrs. Leda Yeager, 103 Schiller St., Reading, Pa.

"I was so nervous I could not rest day or night. I doctored with three doctors, who diagnosed my case as indigestion, which caused high blood pressure and nervousness, resulting in Rheumatic Pleurisy around the heart. Finally, they decided I had Vertigo."

"But now! I do not feel like the same person! These hideous troubles are nearly completely gone. They began to go when I began taking Munyon's Paw Paw Tonic and they gradually disappeared as I kept on. I owe most of my improvement to wonderful Paw Paw Tonic and I will gladly recommend it to suffering humanity."

What Paw Paw did for Mrs. Yeager, it has done for many thousands of other men and women. And it may do the same for YOU. Do not allow this opportunity to pass by!

Every person who is distressed by indigestion or is weak, despondent or nervous should try Paw Paw Tonic. It costs only $1 a bottle.

One bottle may make you feel like a new person. You can buy it at any first-class drug store. "There's a Munyon Pill for Every Ill." Munyon's, Scanton, Pa.

"There is Hope" you'll say, Scanton, Pa.

"My Rheumatism is gone—"

"THERE are thousands of you men and women, just like I once was—slaves to rheumatism, muscle pains, joint pains, and horrible stiffness. I had the wrong idea about rheumatism for years. I didn't realize that increasing blood-cells had the effect of completely knocking out rheumatic impurities from the system. That is why I began using S. S. S. Today I have the strength I used to have years ago! I don't use my crutches any more."

S. S. S. makes people talk about themselves the way it builds up their strength. Start S. S. S. today for that rheumatism. You'll feel the difference shortly.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

THEY FIGURE IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

Above: GILBERT K. CHESTERTON & HENRY CABOT LODGE. Below: PREMIER NITTI & MRS. FRANCES I. BERNARD

When the steam roller of William M. Butler, wealthy Massachusetts manufacturer, who is directing President Coolidge's campaign for reelection, flattened out Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator and prominent in Republican conventions many years, he did not even murmur, thereby proving he could be a gentleman under all circumstances.

Mrs. Frances I. Bernard, formerly educational secretary of the American Association of University Women, is now dean of women at Smith College.

Francesco Nitti, exponent of peace and liberalism and former Premier of Italy, is an exile in Switzerland, because he opposes the high-handed rule of Premier Mussolini and his Fascisti.

Gilbert K. Chesterton, peaceful purveyor of platitudinous paradoxes, is ready to go to war with the United States if visiting Americans don't stop trying to make Britons supplant the heavy English breakfast with the lighter Yankee style.

WILLINGHAM HERE

Dr. H. J. Willingham was here today en route to his home in Florence from Birmingham where Thursday evening he attended a meeting of the educational committee of the state Baptist convention.

Dr. Willingham stated that Florence Normal college has well over a 1,000 students at this time, the largest summer school now open in the state.

The Associated Press is the world's greatest news gathering agency. The Daily readers are the beneficiaries.
